Khaya is NYC Deputy Mayor!

Congratulations to Khayalihle Hlomuka in Grade 10, who has been selected as the Deputy Mayor of the Durban Youth Council for 2018.

On Wednesday, 15 November 2017, the annual Mayoral elections were held for the year to come and DHS will once again be represented in the leadership of the council, with Khaya succeeding Zakariya Adams, our Head Prefect for 2018, as the Deputy Mayor for his year on the body.

The Durban Youth Council is an apolitical, areligious non-profit organisation that strives to uplift the Durban community through community outreach projects and fundraisers, all whilst developing the 100 or so Grade 11 learners, that make up the body, to be the leaders of tomorrow.

Annually, three primary leaders are elected to ensure the success of the NYC. These are one Mayor and two Deputy Mayors. DHS, has the honour of boasting the most ever Mayoral position holders by any school on the NYC, with Khaya set to be the 11th.

Well done, Khaya!
