IMMUNISATION / VACCINATION REQUIREMENTS

In accordance with Government regulations, no learner may be admitted to school without proof of immunisation (clinic card or official vaccination record).

Extract from the South African Schools Act:

When applying for admission, parents must provide proof that their child has been immunised against the following communicable diseases: Polio, Measles, Tuberculosis, Diphtheria, Tetanus, and Hepatitis B.

For the health and safety of all learners, pupils who do not meet these requirements and cannot provide the necessary certificate will not be admitted to school. Any disputes in this regard will be referred to the Head of the Provincial Education Department.

Important Information for Parents:

- A copy of your child's clinic card or official proof of vaccinations must be submitted with the application form.
- If you are unable to locate this card, please check whether your child's current school has a copy. If not, you will need to:
 - Arrange an appointment at a pharmacy clinic (Clicks, Dis-Chem, or similar) for the required booster inoculations. These usually include the MMR booster (Measles, Mumps, Rubella) and the dTpa booster (also known as Boostrix or Adacel Quadra).
 - After receiving the inoculations, the clinic will issue written proof, which must include the date and batch number of each vaccine. This document should be submitted with your child's application in place of the original clinic card.
- Please note:
 - Government clinics are unable to administer booster injections without a valid clinic card.
 - Affidavits, letters from parents/doctors, or blank clinic cards are not acceptable proof of immunisation.
 - If the parent refuses or fails, within thirty days from the date of the written communication referred to in subregulation (6), to submit proof of immunisation or exemption from immunisation, the principal of the public school must, in the best interest of other learners at school. Not admit the learner to school.

Should you have any questions or require guidance, please do not hesitate to contact the admissions office.
